

Please do not change the Indiana No Call List. Any corporate attempt to change this is simply to allow them to harass consumers with sales calls during supper. Banks are trying to change this to call their customers about account information. If that is true then what is the monthly statement all about?